

PAUL WONG PROJECTS MAR. 6TH

5.4 ONE MORE THAN THREE

Celebration Hall, Mountain View Cemetery

POST-OLYMPIC PROJECTS HAPPENING NOW

Saturday Mar.6th, 5pm to 10pm

LAUNCH of 5.4 One More Than Three

The fourth in a series of 5 weekly events, One More Than Three is at Mountain View Cemetery. Life, death and everything in between are constantly evolving. This site will bring together light and dark, silence and sound, living with the dead, and the 4 virtues: truth, bravery, non-violence and generosity, all transforming the modernist Celebration Hall into an installation space for encountering video art.

TICKETS $10 AT THE DOOR (cash only)

Enter @39th+Fraser St., Vancouver, BC free parking.

Collaborator Joey (Shithead) Keithley will rock the living and the dead in an homage to Les Paul (1915-2009), inventor of the Gibson electric guitar. Additional works include Spring, Easter Parade, History of VHS: Death of Violence, Ross, Elsie and Kay, Burka, Hungry Ghosts, Floral Alphabet, Little Big Horn, Luminous Pollution: the Team '5' Collection, Luminous Pollution: A Happy Planet, in ten sity, Hell Money, Exit Upon Arrival by Paul Wong, Vigil 5.4 by Rebecca Belmore and Paul Wong, and 60 Unit; Bruise by Paul Wong and Kenneth Fletcher.

'5' is commissioned by The City of Vancouver through its Olympic and Paralympic Public Art Program, as part of Mapping and Marking Artist-Initiated Projects for Vancouver 2010.

What They Are Saying About 5.3 LED Down The Garden Path

"Paul Wong did it again – he created a new way to experience videos...100 bright-red LED Msgs looked like little digital insects in the tropical setting... videos projected on a giant balloon, the underside of giant tropical plants and on the rocks on the bottom of a trickling pool, flat-screens suspended amidst the branches and tendrils of the Strangler tree.
